Tardy Students May Have To Look For New Surroundings

The principals of schools in the Olds School Division, at recent meeting expressed considerable concern over a number of pupils who are doing far less in school than their ability warrants. In other words, it is felt that a number of pupils are loafing.

The trustees of the Olds School Division are much concerned over this situation. The attention of students and parents is drawn to one of the General Regulations of the Department of Education governing the operation of schools, a regulation which has the force of law.

"Every pupil registered in any school shall be required to attend regularly and punctually — to be clean and tidy in person and clothes — to be diligent in studies, kind and courteous to classmates, and obedient and respectful to the teacher, and to conform to the rules of the school."

Principals have been directed by the board to study carefully the attainment and attitude of each pupil at the time of the first report (November) directly as well as through consultation with assistant teachers. Where it is found that a pupil's marks are below what can be reasonably expected of that pupil, the pupil and parents shall be advised to that effect in writing.

If, at the time of the second report, there has not been the required improvement, the pupil and parent shall again be warned in writing and the superintendent notified, who shall report to the board.

If, after four weeks, the pupil's attitude and attainment is still considered unsatisfactory, the pupil will be suspended for the balance of the term.

It is not the wish of the teaching staff nor of the trustees that any pupil be so suspended. What is wanted is diligent application to studies by all pupils.

ATTENTION! MEMBERS OF MONS CHAPTER, I.O.D.E.

Founder's Day service, usually held in February, will be held this Sunday (January 26th) at 12 noon in St. Cyprrian's Anglican church. Members are asked to assemble at the home of Mrs. F. Nichol, at 11:45 a.m. Following the service tea will be served at the home of the regent, Mrs. E. Ford.

Polio Strikes Inoculated Calgary Girl

(From The Calgary Albertian)

Despite inoculation with three doses of Salk vaccine, a four-year-old Calgary girl has become a victim of poliomyelitis with paralysis.

Medical officer Dr. W. H. Hill said Tuesday the patient was "doing extremely well" and that the vaccine appeared to have contributed to her promising condition.

Why did she contract polio after being immunized?

The vaccine may have engendered insufficient antibodies, Dr. Hill suggested.

It is believed to be the first case of its kind since the Salk program was introduced, although some victims have been reported after having one or two doses.

The girl was one of two city cases of polio to be reported this week. The other is a 19-year-old girl who had not been immunized and is also paralytic.

TODAY'S CHUCKLE

A gold digger is a girl who breaks dates by going out with them.

Shirley Holmes, 22, of Portsmouth, England, on the left reads a letter from her Italian soldier fiancé, Guilio Comparini, on the right. The couple met while Shirley spent a holiday in Italy last summer. Shirley has a hole in her heart and lives in continual danger. Her doctors say she may die at any moment and have barred her going to Italy again. So Italian army officials have given Private Comparini a month's leave to visit Shirley with all expenses paid by the Italian Government. The couple will soon be re-united and wedding bells are in the air.

Plans are being made for the annual concert, which will take place just before Easter, and the successful tour of last year will undoubtedly be repeated this season. Meetings are held every Monday at 8 p.m. in the Bible College chapel.

REDS STILL FOLLOWING SAME PROGRAM

Although direct military attack is somewhat risky, Russia is nevertheless working towards its original purpose of world revolution.

James Thomson, CMO, OBE, United Kingdom deputy high commissioner, told a United Services Institute meeting Tuesday night that:

"The Russian approved pattern is to infiltrate a pro-Soviet government, and in that end a Soviet puppet government is being set up."

"The process varies from country to country," he said, "but Communist forces are at work all the time; eating away, perverting national aspirations, maintaining tensions—an implacable unrelenting acid."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
The fact that the healing saving power of the Christ, Truth is always present will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson Sermon entitled "Truth" will include the following from Matthew (9:35): "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people."

Correlative selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (494:30): "Our Master cast out devils (evils) and healed the sick. It should be said of his followers also, that they cast fear and all evil out of themselves and others and healed the sick. God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God. Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago. All of Truth is not understood; hence its healing power is not fully demonstrated."

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. John's Lutheran Church, Calgary on January 3rd, when Inez Kleven of Calgary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Kleven, of Mawer, Sask., exchanged vows with Mr. Derek L. Page of Didsbury, son of Mrs. Dorothy M. Page, and the late Captain E. Page.
The double-ring ceremony, with Rev. C. Darchel officiating, was performed by candle-light before an altar bedecked with baskets of daisies, mums and ferns.
The bride, escorted by her eldest brother Joy, of Youngstown, Alta., entered the church to the strains of "Beautiful Saviour", played by Mr. Martin Klemm of Calgary. She wore a floor-length gown in traditional white, of lace and ruffled net over satin. Her finger-tip veil was edged with nylon lace. She carried a white Bible covered with roses, and with rosebud streamers of ribbon and lace. Her only jewellery was a gold bracelet, which had belonged to the groom's mother.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Page of Didsbury, only sister of the groom, was beautifully gowned in a light-blue dress of net and lace. Her veil was in matching blue, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.
The groom was attended by Mr. Kenneth Warkentin of Sunnyslope, Uthman, were Mr. Owen Mosby and Mr. Oscar Simons, both of Calgary. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kleven wore a wine, figured dress, with black and white accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother chose a navy and white dress, with navy accessories, and wore a corsage of red roses.
A reception for 50 guests was held in the church parlors. Rev. C. Darchel proposed a toast to the bride, and the groom responded. Miss Mary McKee was in charge of the register. Telegrams from Mr. and Mrs. Ben Page of Toronto, and from Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kleven from Teslin, Yukon, were read by Mr. Warkentin. Servitors were Mesdames A. Williams, P. Norton, K. Fraser, G. Crowe and K. Crowe. Following the reception a wedding dance was held at the Lone Pine Community Hall.
For going away the bride chose a turquoise and white two-piece dress, topped with a fur coat. Her accessories were in winter-white. The happy couple left by car for a trip to Eastern Canada and the United States. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Page will reside on the groom's farm, east of Didsbury.

A Sad Situation . . .

We were talking to a young lad who happened to pass our office one day when the door was open. He made a remark that inferred (to us at least) that there just wasn't too much in our town to attract the interest of some age groups — after school and on the holidays. He left us with the impression he wasn't looking forward to tomorrow because the pattern would be the same. True, the weather has very definitely held up normal winter activities, but is there no way to fill the gap? An earlier suggestion made in this column, a youth centre (the building is still available) sounds awfully good to us — they tell us the cost and upkeep would not be too great; the rewards would be!

Just For The Record . . .

We hear from the school bosses that the axe is hovering over the head of several school students who are just putting in time at the "brain capital" and not producing the work they are capable of. A note from the school division appears elsewhere in this issue. Wouldn't that be a nice report card to take home to the parents who have fed, clothed and, in many cases, gone short of luxuries to prepare you with the necessary "know-how" when you meet the outside world. You'll never know how many millions of children are denied the privilege to learn that you have, and are abusing.

Just For The Record . . .

Merchants are warned of the recent flare-up of break-ins that have plagued the cities and smaller centres in recent weeks. It is suggested that business men do not leave money laying around unguarded. If your safe is not locked, place a prominent notice on it to that effect — leave your cash register open (after removing the important items) — leave a night light on. Could save you money and an awful lot of inconvenience.

Radioactive Fallout On The Farm

FIFTH OF A SERIES . . . RADIOACTIVE FALLOUT ON THE FARM

The following article is prepared by the Director of Civil Defence for the Municipal District of Mountain View No. 49, Mr. Wm. J. Bernal, and in these days of strained international relations will be of interest to the farming communities of this municipality, and it is sincerely hoped will assist the rural populations to better understand their position should war come.)

FALLOUT — LIVESTOCK

What Measures Should Be Taken To Protect Poultry?

Measures for protecting poultry are the same as those recommended for other farm animals. Poultry housed in concrete buildings would be better protected from fallout than those housed in wooden buildings. Radioactive materials might show up in the eggs if hens eat contaminated feed. But most of the radioactive strontium will collect in the shells; very little will collect in the yolk or in the white.

What Animal Food Products Are Safe To Market After Fallout?

You will receive specific instructions from the Civil Defence authorities based on the amount of fallout received. Do not destroy any animal food products unless spoilage has made them inedible. Contaminated food products may be safe for consumption if they can be stored for a period of time to allow the radioactivity to decay.

What Do I Do If Animals Die From Fallout?

Some of your animals may be affected so severely from fallout they may die in a few days or weeks after being exposed. Others will be unthrifty; they may have to be slaughtered. Do not slaughter any of your livestock unless you are told to do so by Civil Defence or agricultural authorities. If animals die from fallout, you

RUGBY INSTITUTE PLAN CARD PARTIES

Rugby W.I. held its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Alfred Cowitz with seven members and one visitor present. A donation of $5.00 will be made to Wood's Home. All fees are to be paid and subscriptions to "Home and Country" sent in.

Two military whist parties were arranged: the first at Mrs. R. McNaughton's on Jan. 13 and the next one at the home of Mrs. Alfred Cowitz on Jan. 27.

The year's program was completed and each member is to make a program book to be judged at the March meeting.

There will be a fruit cake contest at the February meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. Alex Blain at 8:00 p.m. on Feb. 6th.

can dispose of the bodies by burial. These carcasses usually are not dangerous to surviving animals. Special instructions for your protection while handling contaminated carcasses may be issued by Civil Defence authorities, depending on the amount of contamination present.

Is It Possible To Decontaminate Livestock and Farm Buildings That Have Been Exposed to Fallout?

If there is fallout on the animals' skins, much of the radioactivity can be washed off. Civil Defence authorities may advise you to hose down animals and to clean stables, barns and other farm buildings. They will also tell you when it is safe to do these things. In handling animals, take proper precautions to prevent contaminating yourself. Cleaning or disinfecting buildings will not destroy radioactivity.

CAUTION: Before hosing down animals or cleaning buildings, a thorough check should be made of possible radiation hazards.

Let's Shed Some Light

On The Subject

Correct lighting in a home provides visual comfort, and adds to the use, appearance and enjoyment of a home. Good light should flexibly serve the changing activities and varying moods of the family. A good way to find out if rooms have sufficient light is to have the electrician test each room with a light meter.

Faultless lighting should be free from glare, shadows and too much contrast.

Shun glare by covering bulbs with shades, remembering to remove inflammable cellophane. Cellophane on shades causes streaks to develop.

Get the most from your lights. Dust absorbs 80% of the light given off by neglected bulbs. Dust, fixtures frequently.

Lamp shades that flare out spread the light over a larger area than the drum or vertical kind. White shades blend with different color schemes and don't absorb the light. Fibre glass and other washable shades are very practical because they are easily cleaned.

When writing or doing close work, position the light so the shadows fall behind. When reading, the bottom of the lamp shade at your side should be at eye level. A lamp behind you with its shade above eye level is best placed 10 inches behind the shoulder near the rear corner of the chair.

Too much contrast between light and dark shadows cause eye strain. An example of this is watching TV with the rest of the room in total darkness. Some other light should be provided in the room.

Supper-In-A-Dish

2 cups cubed left-over pork,

beef, chicken or ham

1 can condensed mushroom, cream of chicken, celery, asparagus or pea soup

1/2 cup of milk

2 tablespoons grated onion

Salt and pepper to taste

Cooked rice

Any left-over vegetables,

peas, corn, carrots

Dilute condensed soup with 1/4 cup milk. Add onions and seasoning. Stir in left-over meat, vegetables and cooked rice. Pour into casserole and bake at 350 degrees for 40 minutes.

Didsbury W.I. Holds

Busy Meeting

Didsbury Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wahl on Jan. 23 with 13 members and one visitor present. Roll call was answered by the paying of dues. A letter will be written to the Cancer Society informing them that the W.I. have decided to stay with the United Appeal.

A motion was carried to gather used clothing for the Unifairian service in Calgary and bring them to the next meeting. Mrs. Wahl gave out little dresses to be sewed for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Blain kindly offered her home for the quilt which is one of the projects and any member who has a small plant suitable for a planter, to start one, and then leave it at Mrs. Barrett's.

A mixed concert of jelly, vegetables, fruit in small jars, will be held at the next meeting.

There is to be an executive meeting for the making up of books at Mrs. Long's on February 16th. Next meeting will be held at Mrs. E. Reinhardt's on February 4th.

tips about buying towels:-

1. Wear — a firm close under-weave giving the best wear.

2. Absorbency — close, thick loops, loosely twisted, will absorb a lot of moisture.

3. Size — suitable for purpose.

4. Launderability — practical color, will hold shape. Decoration should be practical and washable.

5. Color and design — practical and to harmonize with bathroom.

6. Price — buy the best quality you can afford for the purpose.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The students of the college were guests at a party in the Menno Bible Institute last Saturday. This invitation was gladly received and most of the students from here were present. Our students prepared a fine program which was held in their chapel, under the leadership of Mervin Traub, convener of the social committee. A student tour of their school was conducted, after which lunch was served. The students appreciated this kind invitation from Menno, and expressed themselves freely concerning the good time they enjoyed.

We have had the privilege of having in our midst two of our graduates who are now missionaries, during the last week. Miss Joyce Burkholder, Reg. N., who has been in Nigeria for one term, was a guest here and has been accompanying Mrs. Suder on some missionary deputation work. Miss Myrtle Anderson, who is now a veteran missionary in Nigeria, has also been doing deputation work. She will be speaking in the church next Sunday evening and will also show slides of the work she is doing in Africa. Miss Burkholder nurses in the Tungu Magajiya hospital and Miss Anderson is in charge of much of the educational work in Africa, under our United Missionary Society.

A few weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. John Gamble and some of their family had chapel and spoke on the work they have been engaged in in India. Mr. Gamble is also a graduate of this college.

The "Annual" staff is very busy these days setting up their material for the publication of a College Year Book. Mrs. Ormand Sherick and Miss Doreen Wolfe are co-editors this year. They expect to put out the best student publication yet.

The college has the great privilege of entertaining in part at least the Wes Aarum's while they were here for the Youth for Christ meetings. Mr. Aarum spoke in the chapel and brought much encouragement to the young people as they study to prepare themselves for Christian service.

On Tuesday Rev. Jamieson, who was formerly with the Sunrise Gospel broadcast, was guest speaker. Rev. Bob Simpson brings to us many good speakers as he comes to take his classes each Tuesday.

Last weekend several groups of students took services in Bergen and James River. Within the next week some of the students from the

4-H CALF CLUB HEAR FROM AUSTRALIAN

The January meeting of the Didsbury-Carstairs Dairy Calf Club was held at the farm of Mr. Bill Morton on January 10. A class of Ayrshire cows were judged. Two students from the O.S.A. were guests at the meeting. One of the students, who comes from Australia, gave a talk on the dairy industry in that country. The other student spoke on the 4-H Club of Bow Island, of which he is a member.

It was decided to have a skating party sometime this month. Ways of making money for the club were also discussed.

Next meeting will be held at Mr. Wm. Hunter's farm on Feb. 14th.

WESTCOTT W.A. INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

The January meeting of Westcott W.A. was held at the church with 19 members and one visitor present. Mrs. A. Blain acted as hostess.

Devotional was given by Mrs. G. Youngs. Rev. T. K. Palmer installed the new officers. The missionary topic entitled "Life in Japan" was given by Mrs. C. Fischer.

The manse report was read by Mrs. A. Blain and plans for the Valentine Tea, scheduled for Feb. 15, were made.

Midway News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Cubs held their January meeting in the skating rink room. Mrs. Joyce Mullen paid her official visit and discussed the coming stampede to be held in Olds the latter part of March. The boys will enter a team in the chuckwagon race. It is hoped to have a practice on Saturday at the rink. The fathers are asked to come out and help.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Persinger on the passing of the latter's mother, Mrs. F. Gooding.

Brian Hughes and Lyle Balderson are in Didsbury hospital, victims of acute appendicitis.

The congregation of the Anglican church held a social evening on Tuesday of last week to honor Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Doyle, who will leave shortly for Ft. Macleod. Mr. Lawrence Hunter showed some films and Mr. Tom Patterson presented the honored couple with a beautiful table lamp.

Notes From D.A.

By Howard J. Fisher

Agriculture is made up of many individual farm units — each unit is small but collectively forms a great industry. No industry, whether it be manufacturing, transportation or agriculture, can stand still and maintain its proper place in society. It must change and alter to the trends and conditions of the time.

Farming is subject to these changes; those involved in the business will prosper best if they realize this and bend their management and program to the trends. Can a single farmer make changes and alter his program as markets fluctuate and demands change? Yes, he can and he must to keep in pace with the rest of society.

A farmer cannot change his operations to follow the ups and downs of short market cycles or other short-time fluctuations. He will be more successful if he can follow a well-balanced plan which is flexible, allowing him to follow the general trend and latest advancements in agriculture.

The plan must be a good one and include all the aspects of the farm resources such as land use; cropping and livestock management; buildings and machinery, together with labor and capital available. To establish an overall farming program, the best place to start is with a complete evaluation of present operations. Carefully observe present conditions, discover the problems in the farm operations; analyze the business aspect of the program, consider alternatives, get all available information, then decide what can be done to improve the present operations and management of the farm.

When this is completed, it is time to establish a suitable plan for your farm and its resources. When a full program is well and wisely planned it should, when put into actual practice on the farm, give you great satisfaction in a sustained remuneration and pleasant livelihood.

religious education class in the college will be taking charge of the junior prayer service in the church each Wednesday night. Your boy or girl may want to come. Three students will take part in each of these services.

Dear Folks:

There are dozens of surprises in the new John Deere Day we've planned for you, your family, and your friends. More colorful, more informative, more entertaining than ever, it's entirely different from previous John Deere Day programs.

In beautiful Technicolor you'll see an interesting new "Dilemma in Farming," your old friend Tom Hordow, an interesting success story on irrigation. In "What's New for '58" you'll see the latest in farm machinery. The feature picture is something new — a rib-tickling western musical comedy. And tying the program together are colorfully costumed choruses and three singing luscious music written especially for this show. It's a program you and your family will long remember.

Here's something else — no tickets are required, you simply have to show up on the date, at the time, and at the place shown below. You'll be our guests.

All those who have received this honor have donated to the blood bank 20 times, in some cases more than 20. A fair target to shoot at.

We were peering around the other afternoon and spotted our former druggist, George Law, collecting window cleaning jobs. He got one contract at Reiber brothers office where some unidentified local artist (?) has been accused of making a mess of Christmas window decorations. We heard it whispered that a court case is pending as a result of the job done. Seems there has been a counter claim filed as well. The results of these two charges will be reported in a later issue, provided the matter is not settled out of court.

WESTCOTT JUNIOR W.I.
HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The January meeting of Westcott Junior W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Allan Konechuk with 15 members and two guests present. Roll call was answered by payment of dues. It was decided to give the retiring officers a souvenir for their two years in office.

A Christmas cake contest was judged by Mrs. H. Goelien and Mrs. R. Youngs, the winners being Mrs. R. Dubois and Mrs. T. Topping. Secret sisters were drawn for. The health convener, Mrs. B. Reinhardt, gave a very interesting talk on preparing your child for the hospital. Members are reminded to bring a get-well card and any quilt patterns they may have, to the next meeting.
